

EXHIBITION ON “THE GREEN ACTION” UNDER THE FORUM OF BRITISH COUNCIL FOR THE INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL AWARD

Delhi Public School, Bhilai had organized an exhibition on 9 August 2014 under the forum of British Council for the International School Award. The Project undertaken was “The Green Action”. The exhibition was inaugurated at 9:00 a.m. by our Chief Guest Mrs. Manjusha Mishra w/o Shri Rajesh Mishra, I.P.S., ADGP. The students displayed various charts and craft items prepared by the Middle Wing of Classes VII & VIII. Students prepared survey reports on conversation of water. Wonderful Craft items were made through Papier Mache-

Recycling of Paper. Students made files on Herbarium and on endangered plants and animals. It was planned to inculcate awareness in students about environment related issues. The students’ efforts were appreciated and applauded by the Chief Guest and the Visitors.

The teachers involved in the activity were Dr. (Mrs.) Seema Kumar, Mrs. Shraddha Dewangan and Mr. Amitabh Kr. Tiwari.

TWO DAY SEMINAR ON THE ISSUES CONCERNING ADOLESCENTS

The 12th and 13th of July 2014 witnessed a Two Day Seminar on the topic “Adolescents-Attitude, Attire and Attractions” in the Conference Hall of Risali Sector, Delhi Public School, Bhilai. The Seminar is an activity planned under the British Council ISA (International School Award) Project for which DPS Bhilai has registered this year. Through such projects the British Council provides the students with an opportunity to showcase their talents on a Global Platform, going beyond the mundane curriculum of day to day studies. The Seminar which aimed at creating awareness about various adolescent issues attended by a large group of students from classes XI & XII.

The inaugural day programme commenced at 9:30 a.m. with the presentation of floral tokens to the dignitaries and the principal Mr. Parshant Vashishta and lighting of the ceremonial lamp.

The programme was graced by Mr. Raj Kumar Sharma, Principal Sri Sankaracharya Sr. Secondary School, Hudco, Madam Nalini Sharma, Sr. Lecturer Govt. School, Risali and two teachers from Sri Sankaracharya Sr. Secondary School Hudco, Madam Sarpal, ISA coordinator and Madam Ashtaputre, the school Counsellor.

The Resource Persons for the day were Prachi Agarwal, an active Brahma Kumari and an alumna of DPS Bhilai, Tabla Maestro Parthasarathi Mukherjee and his wife Babli Mukherjee, two Senior Pediatricians from Jawahar Lal Nehru Hospital Sector-9, Bhilai, Dr. P.K. Kar and Dr. P.K.

Biswal, and Madam Sonali Chakraborti, an eminent Public Speaker. Having been stalwarts in their own fields, they all enlightened the gathering of nearly 70 students from the host school and 8 students from Sri Sankaracharya, Hudco and touched upon different issues relating to adolescence. The first day interaction came to an end with the vote of thanks proposed by Madam Priya C. Peri, The ISA coordinator for the school.

The second day began with a melodious rendition of Bhajan and Gazal by Shri Prabhanjay Chaturvedi Sr. Artist BSP All India Radio and Doordarshan and a winner of many awards after which Dr. Tapas Mukherjee, Prof. Govt. College Bhilai-3, gave an insight into the world of literature for a better life. Furthermore Dr. A.K.

Banerjee, a veteran in Ophthalmology explained the importance of taking care of eyes in this age of techno gadgets like Computers and I-Phones.

The informative and interesting seminar cum workshop reached its culmination with the awarding of the certificates to the participating students and appreciating their whole heartedness, patience and enthusiasm. The day moved towards its end with the vote of thanks proposed by the Project Head Madam Sudipta Sarkar.