An essay I couldn't write

1) "I didn't expect this sort of performance from you, Shruti!" said the teacher,looking sharply at her. There was absolute silence in the classroom. Shruti slowly stood up in her place and looked down at her feet. Thirty-two pairs of eyes watched her curiously.
2) "It is wrong on my part to call it a performance, for this is no performance at all", continued the teacher in a louder voice, and held-up an answer sheet for everyone to see. All eyes turned to the sheet and the silence was broken. Some girls drew in their breath and exclaimed 'Uhemm!' while others said, "Oops!" and a faint ripple of laughter could be heard.
3) "Will you explain this , Shruti?" the teacher asked sternly, the blank sheet fluttering in her hand "What made you submit this blank sheet when I had given you one full hour to write the essay?" asked the teacher.

   There was a heavy silence. Shruti did not look up. Nor did she say anything.

4) "Didn't you have a pen ?" asked the teacher.
   Shruti shook her head.
   "Were you ill?"
   Shruti shook her head again.

"Then what was it ?" Come on. Out with it. I have no time to waste, " the teacher said finally. At last Shruti said softly , without looking up, "Because.....because I.....I

Don't have a grand mother".

Vishali, who sat next to Shruti , noticed tears roll down her face.
