Mega Communicative Session:

On the eve of National CA Day i.e. 1st July, DPS Bhilai organized a Mega Communicative Session with CA S.C. Lekhwani during the morning assembly on Friday, 30 June 2017, to facilitate the students of classes IX and X and the Commerce groups of Classes XI and XII with the information about how to venture into CA as a lucrative career. At the outset, Mr. S.C. Lekhwani, a renowned CA of this region, with Diploma in System Audit and Risk Management addressed the gathering and thanked the school fraternity for such an opportunity given to the students to make them abreast of this prestigious profession. He shared the fact that he enjoyed the company of children and loved to guide them, as according to him this was the right age for the students to know the interesting fact that CA was the widest stream amongst all career options, available in the country.

On a lighter note he recollected the famous tag line of Steel Authority of India and drew a simile by saying that there was a bit of commerce just as there is a bit of SAIL in everybody's life.

He talked in detail about the course of CA and proudly informed that CA was a global qualification, profound and challenging and valued in as many as 24 countries. It took four years to become a CA and the course was based on merit and merit alone and it cost Rs. 75,000/- much less than the cost of becoming a doctor or an engineer.

While talking on how to become a CA he insisted on a set of “Mulmantras” such as: having a vision, having a proper plan, being willing to work hard and obeying parents and teachers.

The session though brief was thoroughly informative and enlightening. The students and teachers enjoyed it and were highly benefitted by the interactive questionnaire that followed and Mr. S.C. Lekhwani was patient enough to satisfy the queries of every little mind.
